

ST. ANDREWS SCOTS SCHOOL
Adjacent Navniti Apartments,
I.P. Extension, Patparganj, Delhi-110092

CLASS: VIII	SUB: SOCIAL SCIENCE	TOPIC: Geography	CH- 2 &amp;3 (Worksheet)
------------------------	----------------------------	-------------------------	-------------------------------------

Ecosystem and its Resources / Agriculture

Understand & Attempt:

1. .... forests are found in areas with heavy rainfall.
2. .... and ..... are the major threats to the soil.
3. .... means creating a new forest where there were no trees before.
4. Mixed farming and crop rotation maintain soil .....

Write “T” for true or “F” for false statements:

1. Sericulture is the rearing of silkworms to produce silk. ( )
2. About 90% of the Indian population is engaged in farming . ( )
3. Rice is grown on plantation farms. ( )
4. Trees help in the conservation of underground water. ( )

Answer the following questions :

1. Explain soil conservation.
2. What are the different types of soil found in India?
3. Describe pastoral farming.
4. What is agriculture and crop rotation?